President's Message...

It is marvelous how time and circumstance change what could have been written – then later regretted or relished.

This President's note is one such effort. Had it been written in the joy of our $35,000 Grant, it would have been different from one written after the behind the scenes dramas of the past week and will certainly be different from one written in what will be the frantic set up of the theatre that has to happen in the two weeks leading up to this production.

So, without relish, regret or exhaustion here goes.....

Thanks to all who have worked so hard for your enjoyment over these six nights of fun, fine food and this time, a lot better singers. As always, with a cast of over 20, just getting people together is a major and often unsuccessful task. Twenty + cast and orchestra, backstage crew, kitchen staff, front of house workers..... a sincere thanks to you all. We'd hoped that this show would be a "world premiere" but someone beat us to it - so it has become an "only performed once before anywhere in the world" show tonight.

I hope that you have come dressed ready to decorate your table and also ready to enjoy yourselves!!

From the Director...

As always, putting a theatre restaurant together has been fraught with difficulties with sick or unavailable cast at rehearsals often. Must be the winter colds at this time of year!! We've had musical mayhem, twists and turns and even a need for an understudy for a night. And it is about this cast member that I wish to speak about, at the risk of singling out one in particular. Kim Wood has been a part of 3 Theatre Restaurants now in a row. We seem to have a little "family" of "Theatre Restaurant only" actors. I have seen her "grow" so much on stage during that time which is a credit to Kim herself and her love of acting. Kim, we are going to miss the 21st birthday cake and being able to sing you Happy Birthday on our last night but I suppose he have to share her with her real family on her 21st. So a big welcome to Sarah on that night and thank you Sarah for "stepping in".

It's the family "thing" I'd like to follow a little. We always welcome "newbies" to our theatre with open arms and this time we have SEVEN newbies!! A big WELCOME to you all.

Barb Bloodworth shares her costume making flair this time as well as chorus duties, whilst daughter Sandra has a nice rest in this show by just being in the chorus.

Finally I would like to think that our music is even better this time, under the skilful directorship of Meg Kiddle. Rather than having song sheets on your tables to help drown us out, this time you are about to enjoy some quality voices and home grown cast musicians plus a few extra musical talents.

We hope that you all sing along loudly and enjoy your night out with us.

From the Cast Members...

This is my fourth ACT1 Theatre Restaurant production, and am thrilled to return to the stage with the "family" of regulars, and also new, in this nearly new Halloween show! I have been involved with Act 1 since 2004 in shows such as 'Allo 'Allo, Murder at the Music Hall, Not Now Darling, Jest at the West, Steel Magnolias and Anyone For breakfast. I hope you the audience will have as much fun as I do tonight!

- Meg

This is my third theatre restaurant and it has been a blast! I love to entertain people. I am thankful to have been given this opportunity to perform and work with a great cast & crew.

- Kim

This is my First production here at ACT1, I am stepping in as our Understudy to the principals for this musical production. One cast member was always to be unavailable for one night, so here am I to cover for this character on her special day.

- Sarah

Since the age of 15 I have sang in Musical Theatres throughout NSW, I moved to QLD 6 years ago and joined ACT1 last year for "Jest in the West", as it was so much fun, I have returned for another season, but this is my first speaking role, so I am utterly excited.

- Marion

As a newcomer to the ACT1 Theatre family, I am privileged to be working with such a happy, talented, unaffected and supportive Cast. Rehearsals have been a LOT of fun! I thank our patient Director, Terry Frawley, for this opportunity. Enjoy the show with us!

- Dee

I have been in plays off and on for the past 25 years. I've always lived on the Sunshine Coast and played with Nambour Theatre. I moved to Bald Hills only a few months ago and came straight to ACT1 Theatre to meet people. I got this part as the witch and I hope I do her well. Please enjoy.

- Leonie

I have only been in theatre since 2007, and started my performing at Sandgate theatre. Having found a singing voice, I wanted to do more musical theatre, which took me to KSP Theatre in '08 & '09. I am now working on two productions, I hope you enjoy this show and my still-swilling character Stan.
